

Praying for your CLASSROOM

MONDAY

Father, help me see my students the way You do. When I feel tired or frustrated, give me Your eyes and Your heart. Let my words and actions reflect Your love, even in the smallest interactions. Make me the teacher they need today.

TUESDAY

Lord, I lift up my students to You today. Give them minds that are sharp and hearts that are teachable. Help them grow in wisdom, not just in facts and knowledge, but in understanding how to live with purpose, integrity, and compassion.

WEDNESDAY

God, give my students courage to do what's right, even when it's not easy. Help them stand firm in truth, resist peer pressure, and make choices that honor You. Surround them with influences that lead them closer to Your heart.

THURSDAY

Lord, when I feel overwhelmed, be my strength. When I feel stretched thin, be my peace. Fill me with patience that goes beyond my own capacity. Let Your Spirit guide my responses and renew my energy to finish the week well.

FRIDAY

Father, remind my students that they are deeply known and loved by You. Speak truth over their lives—truth that drowns out insecurity and confusion. Help them discover their gifts and the unique calling You've placed on them.

SATURDAY

Lord, I give You this time of rest. Help me release the weight of the week and entrust every burden to You. Restore my soul so I can return to the classroom refreshed, ready to lead with joy, grace, and confidence in Your calling.

SUNDAY

God, draw each of my students closer to You. Whether they know You personally or not, plant seeds of faith that will take root. Guide their steps, shape their future, and remind them that they are never alone.

Praying for your CLASSROOM

MONDAY

Father, help me see my students the way You do. When I feel tired or frustrated, give me Your eyes and Your heart. Let my words and actions reflect Your love, even in the smallest interactions. Make me the teacher they need today.

TUESDAY

Lord, I lift up my students to You today. Give them minds that are sharp and hearts that are teachable. Help them grow in wisdom, not just in facts and knowledge, but in understanding how to live with purpose, integrity, and compassion.

WEDNESDAY

God, give my students courage to do what's right, even when it's not easy. Help them stand firm in truth, resist peer pressure, and make choices that honor You. Surround them with influences that lead them closer to Your heart.

THURSDAY

Lord, when I feel overwhelmed, be my strength. When I feel stretched thin, be my peace. Fill me with patience that goes beyond my own capacity. Let Your Spirit guide my responses and renew my energy to finish the week well.

FRIDAY

Father, remind my students that they are deeply known and loved by You. Speak truth over their lives—truth that drowns out insecurity and confusion. Help them discover their gifts and the unique calling You've placed on them.

SATURDAY

Lord, I give You this time of rest. Help me release the weight of the week and entrust every burden to You. Restore my soul so I can return to the classroom refreshed, ready to lead with joy, grace, and confidence in Your calling.

SUNDAY

God, draw each of my students closer to You. Whether they know You personally or not, plant seeds of faith that will take root. Guide their steps, shape their future, and remind them that they are never alone.